No FEAR Act Notice

On May 15, 2002, Congress enacted the “Notification and Federal Employee Antidiscrimination and Retaliation Act of 2002,” now recognized as the No FEAR Act (Public Law 107-174). The No FEAR Act was amended on January 1, 2021, by the “Elijah E.

Cummings Federal Employee Antidiscrimination Act of 2020” [further strengthening accountability for violations of federal civil rights laws]. One purpose of the No FEAR Act is to “require that Federal agencies be accountable for violations of antidiscrimination and whistleblower protection laws.” (Public Law 107-174, Summary). In support of this purpose, Congress found that “agencies cannot be run effectively if those agencies practice or tolerate discrimination.” (Public Law 107-174, Title I, General Provisions, section 101(1)). The No FEAR Act also requires the United States Department of Transportation (USDOT) to issue this Notice to all USDOT employees, former USDOT employees, and applicants for USDOT employment. This Notice informs such individuals of the rights and protections available under Federal antidiscrimination and whistleblower protection laws.

Antidiscrimination Laws

A Federal agency cannot discriminate against an employee, former employee or applicant with respect to the terms, conditions, or privileges of employment because of race, color, religion, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), national origin, age, disability, marital status, genetic information, political affiliation, or in retaliation for a protected activity. One or more of the following statutes prohibit discrimination on these bases: 5 U.S.C. 2302(b)(1), 29 U.S.C. 631, 29 U.S.C. 633a, 29 U.S.C. 206(d), 29 U.S.C. 791, 42 U.S.C. 2000e-16 and 2000ff. If you believe you have experienced unlawful discrimination on the bases of race, color, religion, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), national origin, age, retaliation, genetic information, and/or disability, you must contact a USDOT Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) counselor within 45 calendar days of the alleged discriminatory action, or, in the case of a personnel action, within 45 calendar days of the effective date of the action to pursue any legal remedy. A directory of USDOT EEO counselors is available on the Departmental Office of Civil Rights website at <http://www.transportation.gov/civil-rights>; you can also contact the Departmental Office of Civil Rights by phone at 202-366-4648 for more information. Once you contact the EEO counselor, you will be offered the opportunity to resolve the matter through the informal complaint process; if you are unable to resolve the matter through the informal complaint process, you can file a formal complaint of discrimination with USDOT (See, e.g., 29 CFR part 1614). Parties who complete the informal complaint process are provided with an electronic Individual Complaint of Employment Discrimination Form. The form can be submitted electronically at <https://secure.dot.gov/form/eeoc> or by e-mail at Patricia.Fields@dot.gov. You may also contact the EEO Complaints and Investigations Division, Departmental Office of Civil Rights by phone at 202-366-9370 or by e-mail at DOCR_CMB@dot.gov if you need additional assistance.

If you believe you experienced unlawful discrimination based on age, you must either contact an EEO counselor as noted above or file a civil action in a United States District Court under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act against the head of the alleged discriminating agency. If you choose to file a civil action, you must give notice of intent to sue to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) within 180 days of the alleged discriminatory action, and not less than 30 days before filing a civil action. You may file such notice in writing with the EEOC via mail at P.O. Box 77960, Washington, DC 20013, the EEOC Public Portal at <https://www.eeoc.gov/employees/charge.cfm>, hand delivery at 131 M St. NE, Washington, DC 20507, or Fax at 202-663-7022.

If you are alleging discrimination based on marital status or political affiliation, you may file a written discrimination complaint with the U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC) using Form OSC-14. Form OSC-14 can be submitted electronically at the OSC website <http://www.osc.gov>, under the tab “File a Complaint.” You also have the option to call the Complaints Examining Unit at 1-800-872-9855 for additional assistance. In the alternative (or in some cases, in addition), you may pursue a discrimination complaint by filing a grievance through the USDOT administrative or negotiated grievance procedures, if such procedures apply and are available.

If you are alleging compensation discrimination pursuant to the Equal Pay Act and wish to pursue your allegations through the administrative process, you must contact an EEO counselor within 45 calendar days of the alleged discriminatory action, as such complaints are processed under EEOC's regulations at 29 CFR part 1614. Alternatively, you can file a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction within two years, or, if the violation is willful, within three years of the date of the alleged violation, regardless of whether you pursued any administrative complaint processing. The filing of a complaint or appeal pursuant to 29 CFR part 1614 shall not toll the time for filing a civil action.

Whistleblower Protection Laws

A USDOT employee with authority to take, direct others to take, recommend, or approve any personnel action must not use that authority to take, or fail to take, or threaten to take a personnel action against an employee or applicant because of a disclosure of information by that individual that is reasonably believed to evidence violations of law, rule, or regulation; gross mismanagement; gross waste of funds; an abuse of authority; or a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety, unless the disclosure of such information is specifically prohibited by law and such information is specifically required by Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or the conduct of foreign affairs.

Retaliation against a USDOT employee or applicant for making a protected disclosure is prohibited (5 U.S.C. 2302(b)(8)). If you believe you are a victim of whistleblower retaliation, you may file a written complaint with the U.S. Office of Special Counsel using Form OSC-14. Form OSC-14 can be filed electronically at <http://www.osc.gov>. You may also contact the USDOT Office of Inspector General Hotline by phone at 1-800-424-8071, by fax at 202-366-7749, by email at hotline@oig.dot.gov, online at <https://www.oig.dot.gov/hotline>, or by mail at 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE, West Bldg. 7th Floor, Washington, DC 20590.

Retaliation for Engaging in Protected Activity

A Federal agency cannot retaliate against an employee or applicant because that individual exercises their rights under any of the Federal antidiscrimination or whistleblower protection laws listed above. If you believe that you are the victim of retaliation for engaging in protected activity, you must follow, as appropriate, the procedures described in the Antidiscrimination Laws and Whistleblower Protection Laws sections or, if applicable, the administrative or negotiated grievance procedures in order to pursue any legal remedy.

Disciplinary Actions

Under existing laws, USDOT retains the right, where appropriate, to discipline a USDOT employee who engages in conduct that is inconsistent with Federal Antidiscrimination and Whistleblower Protection laws up to and including removal from Federal service. If USDOT takes an adverse action under 5 U.S.C. 7512 against an employee for a discriminatory act, it must include a notation of the adverse action and the reason for the action in the employee's personnel record. If OSC initiates an investigation under 5 U.S.C. 1214, USDOT must seek approval from the Special Counsel to discipline employees for, among other activities, engaging in prohibited retaliation (5 U.S.C. 1214). Nothing in the No FEAR Act alters existing laws or permits an agency to take unfounded disciplinary action against a USDOT employee, or to violate the procedural rights of a USDOT employee accused of discrimination.

Additional Information

For more information regarding the No FEAR Act regulations, refer to 5 CFR part 724, as well as the appropriate office(s) within your agency (e.g., EEO/civil rights offices, human resources offices, or legal offices). You can find additional information regarding Federal antidiscrimination, whistleblower protection, and retaliation laws at the EEOC website at <http://www.eeoc.gov> and the OSC website at <http://www.osc.gov>.

Existing Rights Unchanged

Pursuant to section 205 of the No FEAR Act, neither the No FEAR Act nor this notice creates, expands, or reduces any rights otherwise available to any employee, former employee, or applicant under the laws of the United States, including the provisions of law specified in 5 U.S.C. 2302(d).

Issued in Washington, DC, on December 8, 2022.

Director,

Departmental Office of Civil Rights,

U.S. Department of Transportation.
